Hampton Roads Sports Commission Announces New Web Series, "SportsTalk 757" - Discussing the Future of Sports in the Region

A New Program to Discuss Insights, Challenges, and Accomplishments of Coaches, Athletes, and Sports Industry Leaders

NORFOLK, Virginia (August 18, 2020) - The Hampton Roads Sports Commission (HRSC), an affiliate of the Hampton Roads Chamber, announces the upcoming launch of their new web series, SportsTalk 757. This program will bring together the 757's coaches, athletic professionals, athletes, and the community to discuss topics pertaining to the future of sports in the region twice a month.

"We are excited about the inception of SportsTalk 757 and feel that it will be an effective way to promote the storied sports culture in the region," said Claudell Clark, Executive Director of the Hampton Roads Sports Commission.

This web series will kick off on Thursday, August 27th at 12 p.m. with a live stream on YouTube and SoundCloud as well as on the Hampton Roads Sports Commission Website with former NFL defensive back for the Detroit Lions and Jacksonville Jaguars and current City of Chesapeake Councilman, Don Juan Carey III.

Carey, a graduate of Booker T. Washington High School and Norfolk State University alumnus, will join Clark to discuss topics such as his transition from athlete to philanthropist and politician, opportunities for sports in the region, the upcoming football season and COVID-19, and insight on ongoing racial tensions and the effect on sports.

“Due to widespread competition and practice restrictions on all levels of athletics, virtual forums will prove to be even more important to highlight the sports related stories in the region,” Clark added.

Listen in to the SportsTalk 757 premier at www.hamptonroadssports.org/stream on Thursday, August 27th at 12 p.m.

The Hampton Roads Sports Commission would like to thank corporate partners Optima Health, the Children's Hospital Of The King's Daughters \(CHKD\), and Atlantic Bay Mortgage Group for their support of this program.
